Learner

As a workplace learner, your health and safety will be covered by two sets of legislation. The Health and Safety at Work Act and the Education Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International Learners Code of Practice. This means that anything related to your health and safety on the job is the responsibility of your workplace; anything that relates to your learning experience is the responsibility of Te Mahi Ako. If in any case you are unsure about who to talk to about an issue, you can contact us.

If you are enrolling into an apprenticeship programme the Code of Good Practice for New Zealand Apprenticeships also applies.

By signing here, you the learner acknowledge that the information supplied is correct to the best of your knowledge, and that you have read and agreed to the terms and conditions listed in the terms of Learner Agreement (section 8) and to the responsibilities listed below.

I agree:

- to achieve at least 10 credits for each calendar year that I am enrolled (where I am enrolled for more than 90 days in the calendar year)
- to supply all my own evidence in assessments
- to work to complete my qualification in the required time period
- to advise Te Mahi Ako if: I need to place my Learner Agreement on hold; or, my employer has changed; or, if any of my details (including contact details) have changed
- that I have disclosed any history of fraud, dishonesty or criminal activity that could cause doubt over my fitness or ability to act in my role to my employer
- that I understand if I am Fees Free eligible, my Fees Free entitlement will be used with a New Zealand Apprenticeship enrolment. Eligibility can be checked at feesfree.govt.nz.

Employer/host organisation

Te Mahi Ako provides work-based learning. We partner with your organisation to understand and respond to the educational, safety and wellbeing needs of your learners. We do this through an agreement between Te Mahi Ako, your organisation, and your learners. This arrangement is described in detail in the Workplace Learning Policy, in the Skills Active Te Mahi Ako Policy Manual found at www.temahiako.org.nz.

By signing here, you the employer acknowledge that the information supplied is correct to the best of your knowledge, and that you have read and agreed to the terms and responsibilities of this Learner Agreement (Section 8), and to the terms and conditions of trade, available in the About us section on our website.

I am responsible for providing support to the learner and agree:

- that the person identified in this Learner Agreement has a current employment agreement (consistent with the provisions of the Employment Relations Act 2000) or a volunteer/unpaid work arrangement that is in the nature of employment
- that in the case of a volunteer/unpaid arrangement, there must be an agreement in place with:
 - clear contractual obligations between the parties
 - regular or rostered hours of duty, commitments to attend work on a regular or when required basis
 - a command and control structure
 - an arrangement that can be subject to termination for unsatisfactory performance
- to provide support to the learner of a type and level appropriate to the nature/scope of their learning programme
- to advise Te Mahi Ako if the Learner Agreement is to be placed on hold or if the learner leaves the employment of my organisation
- that Te Mahi Ako will ensure all Fees Free eligible learners are aware of the implications of apprenticeship enrolment on future tertiary education learning. All Fees Free enrolments will be reconfirmed with the learner prior to processing.

Terms of Agreement

- To be eligible to be a Te Mahi Ako learner you must be 1) employed with a workplace; or 2) a volunteer with a host organisation in a manner that is equivalent to a worker role; or 3) a self-employed contractor contracted to a host organisation
- Your Learner Agreement will begin when Te Mahi Ako has received full and complete documents and will run for the agreed programme duration. An extension of time to complete the training will require written approval from Te Mahi Ako
- In signing this agreement, the learner and employer/host organisation authorise Te Mahi Ako to collect and exchange information with any government agency, NZQA, assessors, or other tertiary education organisations for the purpose of administering training and assessment activities
- To help us provide you with appropriate support, if you have not previously completed NCEA Level 2 or an NZQA Level 2 qualification or equivalent, you will be required to complete a literacy, language and numeracy (LLN) assessment
- You are entering into this agreement in good faith, having checked your eligibility for the New Zealand Government's Fees Free scheme (this can be checked by inputting your NSN at www.feesfree.govt.nz), and knowing that completing this qualification may affect your future Fees Free eligibility.
- Your enrolment is a three-way agreement between yourself, your employer and Te Mahi Ako. If you decide at any stage to withdraw your enrolment, your workplace will be notified.
- If enrolling into a New Zealand Apprenticeship programme the Code of Good Practice for New Zealand Apprenticeships applies.

Privacy Act 2020

Te Mahi Ako respects the privacy of learners. This privacy statement explains how we may collect, store, use and disclose personal information that you provide to us. You the learner authorise Te Mahi Ako staff and its agents to:

- collect and securely hold information relevant to your Learner Agreement (note: you can access your personal information on request)
- distribute this information as necessary to manage your training (in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Privacy Act 2020) to the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA), the Tertiary Education Commission (TEC), education training providers, iwi authorities, graduation ceremony organisers, your employer, NZRRP and any third party required in relation to your learning and development
- keep you informed of any changes or updates to qualifications or services, and to support your progress using electronic communications in accordance with the provisions of the Unsolicited Electronic Messages Act 2007
- use your assessment evidence as part of Te Mahi Ako's and NZQA's moderation or quality control systems. Te Mahi Ako will remove all references to people/places before using this information for moderation purposes
- provide your employer and assessor with your National Student Number ('NZQA hook-on number') and your NZQA Record of Achievement (ROA)
- allow Te Mahi Ako and your employer access to the personal information created by the Literacy Assessment Tool for teaching and learning purposes only
- allow Te Mahi Ako and the TEC to use the information and results for research purposes and general statistics on tertiary education
- promote your successful completion details on NZRRP if appropriate.
